Base Ball Situation.

Base ball in this city is in a state of misty uncertainty. The Springfields are a strong nine and desire to remain in Springfield if at all possible. The back salaries have been paid in part, but only in part and a large amount is still due the men. Still, however, they are willing to make the best of the situation. The Youngstown Club has paid off her men and abandoned her club, it rumor speak truly. Dayton still has a weak, wishywashy nine that get knocked out every time they meet real base ball players. No enthusiasm whatever can be worked up in the town. The latest scheme is to add Sandusky, Zanesville, Columbus, and Richmond, Ind., to the Int r-State League. This would make a convenient circuit, and with Dayton and sringfield, six good clubs would be assured. smillion, Chillicothe and Portsmouth, of last ar's Ohio Association, seem to be dead in ue shell, and nothing will rouse them. It is noped that the above arrangement can be carried into effect, and that schedule games will proceed smoothly to the end of the season. Springfield now has the best nine she

RIGH SCHOOL ALUMS!

A Feast of Reason and Flow of Lemonade at the Annual Reunion Hanquet of the Atumut Association.

The High School Alumni Association held last evening one of the best attended and most thoroughly enjoyable reunions they have held for years. The spacious chapel of the Central building was crowded with young men and girls, who, with their radiant taxes and sirv costumes, made an assembling beauting are way to a distracting pain, which only gave way to a distracting pain, which tiful to look upon. After an opening piece, executed on the harp by Mr. Rigio, Colonel White offered prayer, at the invitation of the president, Dr. Marquart

The listeners were then delighted by a remarkably fine violin and plans duet, played by Willie and Charlie Bauer.
